Thursday 11th: 9.00 – 19.00

Friday 12th: 9.00 – 13.00

ACP House, Avenue Georges
Henri 451, Brussels, Belgium

The Symposium will:

- » highlight the importance of South-South (SSC) & Triangular Cooperation (TrC) as key mechanisms to empower women and youth in agriculture;
- » share best practices and identify priority areas for up-scaling practical solutions for women and youth empowerment through jobs and entrepreneurship in agriculture;
- » chart the mechanisms through which SSC and TrC can support the exchange and transfer of the best practices and priority areas identified, including sessions on:

- Skills development and enhancing institutional capacity
- Access to technology
- Access to efficient business services.

The Symposium will include Key Note speakers from ACP, FAO and their partners, and bring together a panel of high-level experts from the ACP, FAO, OIF, the Commonwealth Secretariat, as well as national governments and development partners.

A detailed programme will be available in due course.
